

Texas Nationalist Movement

Independence. In our lifetime.

The Texas Nationalist Movement is about Texas and Texans and is for Texans that love being independent. The whole world has heard about the Texas Nationalist Movement; if not in the news of recent years then in tales, verses, and songs from Texas. Texans are supremely proud of their heritage, culture, and history.

"I must say as to what I have seen of Texas, it is the garden spot of the world, the best land and the best prospects for health I ever saw, and I do believe it is a fortune to any man to come here." - Alamo hero Davy Crockett

Texas holds a mystique for any human that has ever been here or touched by its culture in one way or another. The mystique is so strong that few people ever leave without having an opinion about it. They either love it or hate it. Luckily for Texas most people love it and have fond memories of it.

"I done drew the line. Just like the Alamo. You're either on one side of the line or the other. I don't want to ever leave Texas again." - Former Houston Oilers coach Bum Phillips

"If I owned Texas and Hell, I would rent out Texas and live in Hell." - General Phil Sheridan

Texas holds a unique geographical spot in the Americas. It is called the 'West.' It is called the 'South.' It is called the 'Mid-West.' It is called the 'Plains.' Texas is all of these and it is none of these.

"Texas is neither southern nor western. Texas is Texas." - Senator William Blakley

Texas is uniquely Texas. Its culture, even though it is probably the best results of the melting pot experience, remains totally unique to Texas. It would not be unusual to see an immigrant from Vietnam that has chosen Texas as his home, wearing cowboy boots and a cowboy hat.

The Texas style culture is a matchless blend of Mexican style with Western style and while it is a blend of both it remains neither of either one. It is simply Texan.

It is not strange nor considered odd to see Mexican culture, German culture, Jewish culture, and many others at any time being proudly displayed and celebrated in Texas. Even though we maintain our Texas style, we enjoy celebrating the cultures that created our unique merger of all cultures that have blessed Texas with their cultural gifts.

Texans are masters at slaughtering the English language. If'n a word don't exist that we need we simply create one on the fly. If'n a word don't fully fit the message we want to convey we can twist and contort the word so that only Texans know what we are talking about. Our language is filled with slang, vulgarities, colloquialisms, foreign slang and vulgarities, and other words that we can't even remember where they came from.

What may seem like a vulgarity to the rest of the world may be normal and accepted in Texas.

"I dearly love Texas, but I consider that a harmless perversion on my part, and discuss it only with consenting adults." - Molly Ivins

It is probably safe to say that every religion is represented somewhere in Texas. It is also safe to say that the most non-religious people gravitate to Texas or are born here.

*"If the King's English was good enough for Jesus, it's good enough for me." - Ma Ferguson
Governor of Texas (circa 1920)*

Texas has its own brand of music – it's called Texas Music.

Texas has oil. It still has a lot of oil and natural gas. Texas has a self-sufficient economy. Everything that Texans require can be produced in Texas.

Texans do think big. Nothing is impossible in the mind of a Texan. That doesn't mean we're perfect, but dammit we are tryin'.

The only regret for Texans is having any association with the United States. The association has been the lament of generation after generation of Texans since 1845. Texas had its sovereignty stolen, its people, lands, and resources pillaged, and were forced into statehood by military occupation beginning in 1865.

The dream of restoring the nation of Texas has survived the military and federal occupation by the U.S. The dream comes back in each generation. Texans know it is their right to be independent and they know that right has been denied to them.

The hypocrisy of the United States is so transparent when it comes to explaining away the reasons that Texas is a state.

This generation of Texans is no different than that of our fathers and forefathers. More and more of us are dreaming and envisioning our Texas being free of the United States. Texas deserves to stand alone on its own as a nation in the family of nations. It can no longer afford the image given it by any association with a government that has lost its way and gone astray.

The intention of this movement is to show all Texans that there is a simple and peaceful way to reclaim our nation from the United States. Texans have the sole right to reclaim our government, our nation, and our heritage. No government can lawfully stop the Texan people from making the move to free their land from the entanglements with the United States.

This movement will engage in new ways, winning ways, which will appeal to all Texans to help them secure independence for Texas. The movement has changed, a transformation has taken place. It has been out with the old and in with the new.

A new day has dawned and the Texas Nationalist Movement opens its arms and doors to all Texans that KNOW Texans can do it better for Texas, than others ever will or can. Most of the problems, which Texans suffer under, will disappear the moment Texas gains its independence.

Join this movement now to secure our heritage and our future. In the words of a famous nationalist –

*"Give us our future.
We've had enough of your past."*
